If you don't know much about it, you'll be forgiven if you think that this game sounds like a bad game. It is not. I was pleasantly surprised with the game's quality, but like I said it sounds very average in every way. I love all the questions that we get asked in forums, but I'll try to respond to each of them in turn and I'll hopefully tell you what I think about it. For the first question, I think that we are looking at the subjective view of the game.
