22 death of his father, 63-year-old Robert Scott, according to a search warrant. Investigators allege the father was shot multiple times in the stomach at his home in the 100 block of Aragon Avenue. Neighbors told News 3 that they heard two gunshots as they were walking home from work. "I heard two bangs, and that's when it started to ring on my cell phone," neighbor Abran Hawkins said. "I looked out my window and my mom said she heard two bangs, so I got up and looked out the window. I saw two adults who seemed to be not arguing. They seemed to be getting a little bit calmer." The two knew their father well and Hawkins said it was normal for them to see him outside playing catch with the kids. "You see a lot of stuff go on around here," Hawkins said. "But this is the first time I seen something like this. He's never been a violent man. I don't think he would have shot anybody if he were there." Portsmouth Police say there was no sign of a break-in at the home. News 3 is not identifying the child because of his age. Officials said that the family's next court appearance is Nov. 21. Police also arrested a third person who is not Scott's child. He was charged with felony breaking and entering and is being held in the Rockingham County Jail. Feature and sensitivity analysis of regional
