It's suitable for those who like straightforward usability and don't like a lot of options. Adobe Photoshop is a photo editing program that most photographers use to edit, retouch and transform photos. Photoshop has become one of the world's most used programs, not only because it's powerful and easy to use but because it keeps being upgraded and updated. For graphic designers, Adobe Photoshop is often their first stop when they want to make a mockup or update a design. It is, after all, one of the world's leading graphics editors. Many people rely on Photoshop when they want to create memes, use easy-to-find fonts or write the perfect handwritten text.

People often forget about the other tools provided by Photoshop to create and edit photos, such as the curve, astro, mesh and other tools. In this guide, we will show you the best freebies for Photoshop, the best free stock images sites, how to edit photos using Adobe Photoshop and what kind of free tools you can get to make memes in Photoshop. The best free Photoshop photography tools As previously mentioned, Photoshop is the go-to tool for many people to edit and transform photos. And just as with other software, Adobe Photoshop comes with a number of other tools that you can use. What's New in the?

Monday, May 28, 2010 Problem is solved My favorite student of the year (SRS) solved a small but very important problem while cleaning her room (yes, I do have a time management problem for not having taught her how to clean her own room last year. I can be a real hard-ass sometimes, can't I?). Well, she just called me up and told me her room is ready for inspection. She did a really good job cleaning (I guess we were just around the same years at school :)). The question and answer for the class are these: The first question: As our room was very messy before, what's the first thing she did in her room before leaving for school? A: She scrubbed the walls (first time she's did that :D). The second question: What's the second thing she did? A: She put clothes (including shoes, bags, and toys) on the bed, then cleaned the bed, then put the clothes back and finally scrubbed the desk. The third question: What's the third thing she did? A: (laughs) She brought down the blanket and hung it on the door, then cleaned the floor around the blanket, then scrubbed the floor again to make it really clean. The fourth question: Is she finished? A: Yes! It really looks like a new room. The fifth question: What did she do while cleaning? A: She played with her toys, read a story in her notebooks (one of her favorites), and drew pictures on the walls. The last question: How long did it take her to clean the room? A: She spent only 5 minutes, I think. So, are you ready to hear the magic of the first learning-to-clean-her-own-room-at-a-young-age child in the class? I think it's a pretty cute story and I can't think of any higher compliment than that, though I'm sure you can. Now, to prepare for tomorrow, another quiz :D I have 20 minutes before my next class.
